

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

Name: Pimenta do Vale

First name: Clara

Function: Assistant Professor

Affiliation: Faculty of Architecture, University of Porto

Country: Portugal

Email: clara.vale@gmail.com

CV: Clara Pimenta do Vale (1967) is an Architect by University of Porto (1991), specialized in building physics and Portuguese 20th-century construction history. She holds a MSc in Building Construction by Faculty of Engineering (University of Porto 1999) and a PhD in Architecture with the thesis “An urban alignment in the construction of Porto - Boavista Axis (1927-1999) - Contribution to Portuguese Construction History in the Twentieth Century” (FAUP 2012). Currently she is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Architecture and researcher at CEAU - Center for Studies in Architecture and Urbanism in the groups: Architecture, City and Territory Heritage (PACT) and Digital Fabrication Laboratory (DFL). She was a practitioner architect

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

(1991-2004), and lecturer (1999-2012). She is also a photographer with several photo exhibitions. Member of the Board of 'Architects without Borders - Portugal' (ASF-P), Member of the Board of 'Portuguese Society for Studies on Construction History'; Member of other national and international organizations (Construction History Society; ICOMOS; Portuguese Association for the Urban Rehabilitation and Heritage Protection). Research focus: Building Physics; Sustainability; 20th Century Construction History; Building Construction Legislation; Vernacular Architecture; Earthen Architecture; The social role of architecture; Emerging technologies applied to building construction; Rehabilitation and reuse; E learning and ICT. Supervisor of 3 on-going Ph.D. theses and 50 Master's dissertations in Architecture (6 in progress). She is the co-author of four books and the author or co-author of more than fifty other publications.

