

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

Name: Vieira Caldas

First name: João

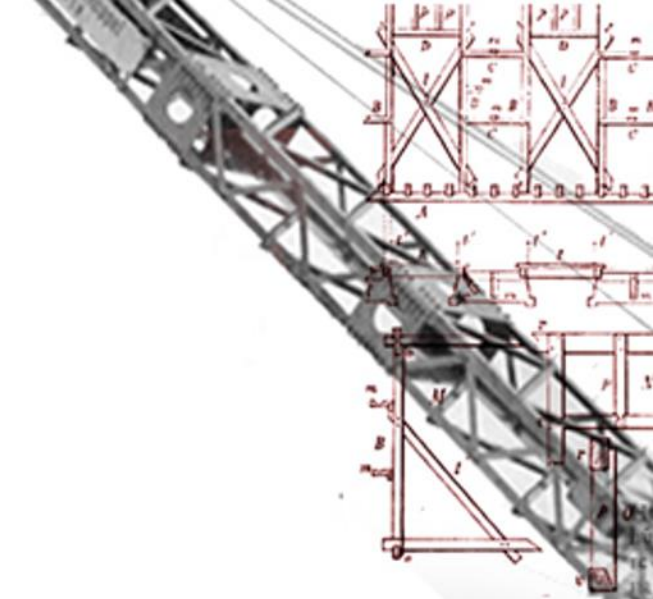

Function: Associate Professor

Affiliation: Instituto Superior Técnico, University of Lisbon

Country: Portugal

Email: jvieiracaldas@tecnico.ulisboa.pt

CV: João Vieira Caldas is an architect and an architectural historian. After having graduated from the Higher School of Fine Arts in Lisbon (1977), he obtained a Master Degree in Art History (1988, FCSH-UNL) and completed a PhD in Architecture (2007, IST-UTL). His career has comprised several domains, ranging from architectural practice to teaching, research and critics. He has carried out projects in the domain of the architectural heritage and has been involved in inventories concerned with the architectural, urban and rural heritage. Currently, he teaches History and Theory of Architecture at IST-UL, where he works as a researcher in the context of CITUA (Centre for Innovation in Territory, Urbanism and Architecture).

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

He has been devoted to research and published several articles and books, curated exhibitions and supervised master theses and PhD theses on the following subjects: theory of architecture, architectural heritage, construction history, and history of domestic architecture (urban, rural, erudite and vernacular). Since its foundation, in 2015, he has been member of the executive board of the SPECH (Portuguese Society for the Study of Construction History).

