

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

Name: Ribeiro

First name: Maria do Carmo

Function: Professor

Affiliation: Department of History, Institute of Social Sciences, University of Minho

Country: Portugal

Email: mcribeiro@uaum.uminho.pt

CV: Professor (Professora Auxiliar) at the Department of History of Social Sciences Institute of University of Minho (Braga, Portugal). Researcher at the R&D unit Lab2PT (Landscape, Heritage and Territory Laboratory/ University of Minho). Bachelor in History (University of Minho/1996), Master in Urban Archaeology (University of Minho/2001) and Ph.D. in Archaeology (University of Minho, 2008). Main area of research and interests include Urban Archaeology and History; morphological evolution of urban spaces, since Roman times to Modern Age; Construction History (13th to early 16th): the building in a diachronic perspective (building site organization, materials, architecture and construction techniques). In this context she has participated and organized several international meetings, and is author and co-author of several articles. Has directed several master and Ph.D. thesis. Member of quite a few scientific organizations, namely in construction history, such as the Portuguese SPEHC (Sociedade Portuguesa de Estudos de História da Construção) and the French AFHC (Association Francophone d'Histoire de la Construction); member of Reportha (environment history network), among others.

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

