

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

Name: Virginia

First name: Flores Sasso

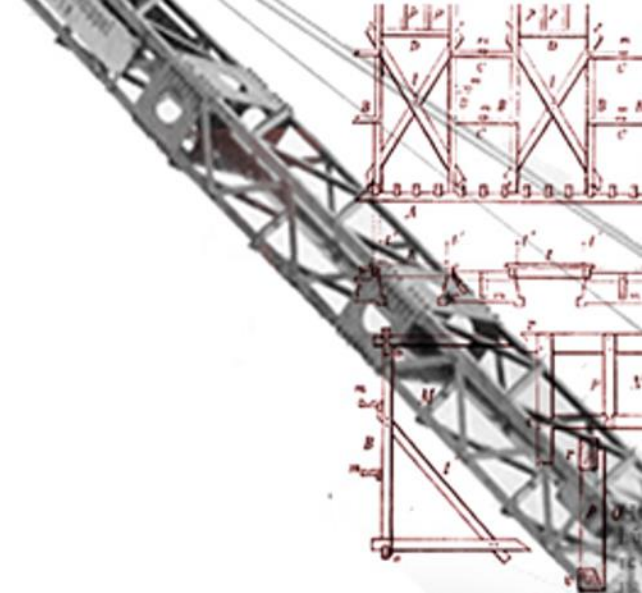

Function: Researcher and professor

Affiliation: Pontificia Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra (PUCMM)

Country: Dominican Republic

Email: vfloressasso@gmail.com

CV: Born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. Architect Cum Laude (UNIBE), Master in Preservation of Monuments and Cultural Heritage (UNPHU), PhD in Architecture (Universidad Michoacana de San Nicolás de Hidalgo, Mexico). Specialization in International Development Cooperation. Researcher and professor at Pontificia Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra (PUCMM). Holder at the National Career Research awarded by the National Council of Higher Education, Science and Technology (MESCyT). It is part of the preservation team of the Cathedral of Santo Domingo, and Principal at the Non

7ICCH

Seventh International Congress on Construction History

Destructive Testing Laboratory in the Cathedral. Member of the History and Preservation Research Group of the Built Heritage. Principal Researcher in national and international researches projects, with publications in scientific journals, dissemination journals, books and newspapers. Lecturer and speaker at national and international level. Member of several international scientific committee and reviewer of scientific journals indexed in Scimago, Scopus. Researcher in fields of construction history, heritage preservation, materials science, sustainability and energy efficiency.

